legal and institutional changes should be made at various levels for the purpose, duly ensuring appropriate role for women. Water Users Associations and the local bodies such as municipalities and gram panchayats should particularly be involved in the operation, maintenance and management of water infrastructures/facilities at appropriate levels progressively, with a view to eventually transfer the management of such facilities to the user groups/local bodies. The Government of India encourages improvements in water management practices. The schemes on "Command Area Development and Water Management Programme (CAD&WM) and "National Project for Repair, Renovation and Restoration of Water Bodies directly linked to Agriculture" also address these issues.
